The Normile Family Center is seeking volunteer educational tutors in various subjects for children between the ages of 12 and 18. Interested tutors would need to be able to commit to volunteering a minimum of two hours per week and able to successfully pass a background screening process. Tutors also act as mentors for the children they are assigned to by taking them to activities around Kirksville and events at Truman. If you are interested in becoming a tutor, mentor, or would just like more information regarding the volunteer tutor program please contact Krista Magers at 660-665-3793 .
