

Good Afternoon Majors and Minors!-

Peace Corp Information Session on tomorrow night, Thursday, October 29th at 5:30 pm in the SUB Georgian Room A. You may register for the event here <http://eventmanager.truman.edu/generallist.asp?department=Professional%20Development>

Roundtable on Race Exhibition in Ophelia Parrish—See attached flyer.

Career Center has available mock interview time slots on Friday, November 6th with the professionals from SCORE (Service Corps of Retired Executives). This is a great opportunity to gain interviewing experience and advice from highly successful individuals from diverse professional fields who are volunteering to travel to Kirksville to work with Truman students. Bring your resume and sign up at the career center—slots fill quickly.

The Division of Youth Services is seeking a part-time employee in the Kirksville area. The position pays $10.57/hour. The employee will assist in working with youth supervised by DYS. Duties may include transporting to your school, job, etc.; spending time to develop constructive relationship with youth; tutoring; and facilitating contacts with school, employers, or community resources. The position could potentially be combined with an internship for academic credit. See Professor Jayne for additional details.

Friday, Oct 30th Pumpkin Carving and Decorating 12-3pm on the QUAD FREE: Apple cider, hot chocolate, festive food, Halloween music and more

Don't miss the Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History exhibit now in the Pickler Memorial Library Gallery. A traveling exhibit, *Free at Last: A History of the Abolition of Slavery in America, is a panel exhibit which traces the history of the movement to abolish slavery from the framing of the Constitution to its abolition during the Civil War.

H. Martin Jayne, J.D.
Associate Professor and Chair,
Justice Systems Department
Director, Northeast Area Criminalistics Laboratory